TARZETTE.

A Clergyman took for his text these words: "The World, the Flesh, and the Devil,"—and commenced his sermon in this manner: I shall pass over the flesh, touch lightly on the world, and hasten as fast as I can to the Devil.

Pray sir, said a gentleman to a wag upon one of our wharves the other day:

"Pray, sir, what is wood now?" "What is wood now?" replied the wag, "why, trees cut down and chopped up."

Fog affright. A man employed by some medical students to procure a subject for dissection, through mistake dug up his own wife, and has been inconsolable ever since.

The Legislature of Maryland have elected William D. Monk, a Senator in Congress, in place of Gov. Kent, deceased.

Georgia.—The Legislators of this State, though Van Buren in both branches, have virtually condemned the sub-Treasury scheme, by a large majority, and it is said a majority of its members are in favor of a national bank.—Cens. Censure.

SIGNS. The Onondaga Chief, a loco-foco newspaper published at Onondaga, New York, has been discontinued.

A new Whig paper called the Democratic Whig, has been established at Pen-Yan, Yates County, N. Y., and the New Berlin Sentinel, a Whig paper, is to be established in Chenango County, New York, built up on the ruins of an administration paper.

Lake Erie. The number of ships, brigs, &c. navigating the waters of Lake Erie, is 300, of steamboats 42, and of canal boats 526. On board of these vessels, 5152 men are employed.

Cabinet Furniture.

JOHN SMITH Jr., would respectfully inform the public, that he has taken a part of the shop occupied by T. Daniels in Tan-Yard Village, where he will keep a hand, or manufacture at short notice, most kinds of the above articles. He hopes by his experience in the business to give full satisfaction to those who may call him with their patronage.
